

Dee Doering
Eldercare: Choices to be Made

Dee Doering is a gifted intuitive, writer, educator, life long learner, and Spirit Guide portrait artist, with teacher certification in Usui, Karuna, and Shamballa Reiki, as well as Access Consciousness, Crystal Therapy, Axiatonal Alignment, and other wellness services. Her classes, workshops, and evening shares, self-care sessions, include empowering life lessons, (shared as down to earth, personal experiences), and are offered in a supportive, fun-loving, and nurturing environment. Since 2007, she is a Reiki Master volunteer with HopeSpring Cancer Support Centre, and since 2016, a volunteer at the Waterloo Wellington Hospice. Dee's passions are laying on the beach, silence, self-love, learning, teaching, facilitating sessions, family, friends, enhancing her intuition, laughter, a-ha moments, and Voyage of H.O.P.E. (helping other people evolve).

Charity of Choice
Ronald McDonald House Charities
South Central Ontario

Ronald McDonald House Charities® South Central Ontario (RMHC®SCO) serves as a regional resource for families of seriously-ill children who are being treated at local hospitals. Their programs are committed to providing accommodations, nutritious home-cooked meals, laundry services and specialized programming. These comforts of home provide a sense of normalcy when their lives are anything but, and ensure that the only thing their families need to focus on is each other.

They support families from across South Central Ontario, and every year, their 41 bedroom house provides a home away from home for hundreds of families and their Ronald McDonald Family Rooms® located at McMaster Children's Hospital, will welcome over 150,000 family visits.
